

HAVILAND, KAS.

Dear Editor: I will jot down a few items from this place as I haven't seen any thing from here in some time.

Jim Howell and family left for Hooker, Okla. a few days ago.

A G Allison and family visited the writer and family Sunday.

The writer and Bruce Hitchcock visited R. P. Allison Tuesday.

Hurrah for Rev. W. S. Tabor as he thinks the Democratic party has got some good men. Kansas is a Republican state but there is lots of the republicans that are glad there is a democratic president.

W. C. Mitchell had a narrow escape of getting his big barn burned a few days ago.

If any of you Tennesseans haven't got any sand in your gizzard you ought to have been here yesterday as sand was all you could see.

The writer planted potatoes yesterday morning and the wind blew so hard by night they were blown out of the ground and I guess they must be over in Oklahoma by this time.

Hello, Jap, of Cimarron, Kansas, when are you coming down.

The editor wants everybody to sign their name to their letters. I am glad of that as there are so many writers I don't know.

Enclosed please find 25 cents for which send the Herald to R. P. Allison, Haviland, Kas., R. 4.

OBITUARY

Last Sunday morning, March 19, this community was shocked by the report of the death of Alvin Countiss who was killed at Monterey at about 2:30 o'clock Sunday morning while on duty as night police at that place. Mr. Countiss was a son of J. A. Countiss and wife of Shipley, hence of a splendid, good family, as his parents and brothers and sisters number along with the very best people of the country in which they live. The writer has known the deceased brother from childhood and has always known him to be a splendid good boy of good morals, good training, an affable gentleman and highly esteemed by all who knew him. Mr. Countiss was nearing his 37th birthday and had lived a christian life for 18 yrs. He leaves a loving companion and four children, the oldest of which is 9 years old, to mourn their loss. May the richest blessings of the great God who watches over us by day and by night, at home and abroad, on land or on sea, be upon her and these little ones both now and forevermore. He also leaves his father and mother, John A. Countiss and wife of near Shipley and three brothers, E. W. and Charles R. Countiss of Cookeville, and H. M. Countiss, a farmer of near this place, and three sisters, Mrs. Kate Letner of Nashville, Mrs. Nannie Holloway of Baker's Cross Roads and Miss Allie Countiss of this place to mourn their loss, and to all of these we tender our heartfelt sympathy, but if possible in most part to his affectionate father and his sainted mother, who are well stricken in years, and whom we learned to love in early life and in whose home we always felt a warm welcome. The body of Mr. Countiss was brought to Cookeville on the west bound train Sunday afternoon and carried thence to the home of his father and was kept over until Monday afternoon when it was placed to rest in a little family graveyard where his sister Callie was laid to rest in 1890 to await the great resurrection. The home and surroundings were alive with a host of friends and neighbors from the time the body arrived until after the burial Monday, who had met to assist them in any way possible during the hours of their sore affliction. We trust and feel assured that the words on the beautiful casket of Mr. Countiss told a true story inasmuch as they said "at rest". Now may Heavens benedictions be upon each of his relatives and may this work out for their good, inasmuch as it may be a tie to bind them closer to each other and to the spirit of the great God who is able to comfort them in time of their great affliction, and may they one day be permitted to join and be a reunited family in the eternal world beyond at the right hand of God there to sing and shout the praises of our redeemer with the bloodwashed millions throughout the countless ages of a never ending eternity. JOE C. KING.

SOME RULES FOR YOU

By Ovanlie Myers

Try to be merry as the birds that are singing.
Try to be joyful as the bells that are ringing.
Try to be cheerful and do what you can.
To help help somebody along the way, Either woman, child or man.

Never be fearful,
Be full of delight.
Always be happy,
And you'll be on the right.

And when you go to work
Be happy all the while,
And never try to shirk.
Work with a pleasant smile.

And when you go to school,
Just learn all that you can,
And if you'll try this rule,
You'll grow up a very wise man.

And if you'll educate yourself,
And keep this little rule,
Some day you'll be able,
To teach a very high school.

EAST COOKEVILLE

Dear Editor and Herald Readers:
As this is my first letter to the Herald, I hope it will not reach the waste basket.

Dramatic Clubs seem to be the order of the day at Central High.

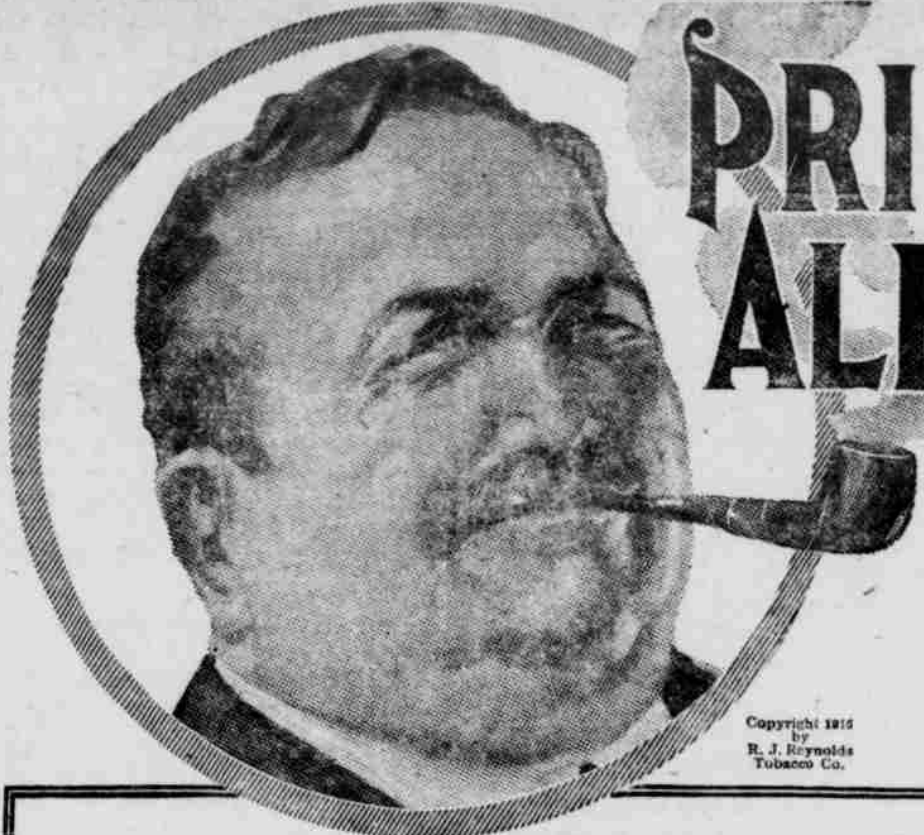

Come on Jug Handle with your letters, they are fine.

I saw Fowler Leo's horse hitched at Mr. Jim Cox's gate, wonder what is so attractive down there.

As this is my first letter to this paper, I will not make it long, but would like for all the Herald readers and friends to send me a birthday card. I am between 13 and 18, and the one guessing nearest my age will receive my picture. My birthday is April 15th. Address Janie Lowe, Cookeville, Tenn.

We want to sell more good seeds this season than ever before, for it means better crops, more money and better times for us all. We can't afford to sell seeds on time; bring your money.

Drive It Into the Barn

AS we told you, a Low Cloverleaf gives the manure a double beating. It also spreads manure eight feet wide or better. But the wonderful thing is that it does this from a box only 45 inches wide. The spreader itself is so narrow that it can be driven into any modern barn and loaded from the gutters. Only one handling of the manure for the quickest, best job of spreading you ever did. How does that sound to you?

If you have even begun to think about buying a spreader, see this Low Cloverleaf. You will say you never saw a better manure spreader. It won't take long to look it over. Your dealer has one set up for you to see.

"Weatherproof Paint"

Quick changes in weather and temperature are a severe test for any paint, but Hanna's Green Seal will

"hold up" every time. It's put together with this all-weather feature in view.

Hanna's Green Seal

has been time-tried and proven. Considering the space it covers and the wear it gives, there is no cheaper paint to be had.

It helps the appearance of both cottage and mansion. Try it next time.

That Tired Feeling

Do You Continually Feel Sluggish, Daintrested?

If you do, it is probably caused by your liver. When the liver fails to perform its functions properly, the system becomes clogged with poisonous matter, that weighs you down mentally and physically. The liver gets out of order very easily, and if neglected, chronic trouble usually results. Don't delay if you feel badly. You knowingly lay yourself open to life long pain, when you allow yourself to continue in run down condition. Cure yourself quickly and harmlessly with the natural vegetable remedy, Liv-Ver-Lax. It has all the effectiveness, but not the effect, of calomel.

Genuine Liv-Ver-Lax bears the likeness and signature of L. K. Grigsby, and is guaranteed to give satisfaction or money refunded. Insist on it. For sale by Wyly Drug Co.
